Profile

I am a screenwriter and narrator with a wealth of experience in the education sector as well as the TV industry. I relish a challenge and have a versatile can-do approach to my work.

Experience

- Aug 2016 - present Writing, film editing and studying my craft as family commitments keep me working from home.
- 1994- Aug 2016 Creative Arts Team Leader at Patcham House Special School. This included teaching English and Film studies to GCSE as well as writing and producing many plays, films and mixed media performances.
- 1986 - 1994 Whilst raising my family I ran a small business creating videos which I shot and edited, adding narration at times.
I also worked for Southern FM researching and writing a guide for local holiday activities.
- 1984- 1985 I worked for Thames Television, Teddington on the children's programme Freetime, researching and writing fact sheets as well as working on set each week.
- 1977 - 1984 I taught at Tolworth Junior School for five years whilst also developing my writing and film making skills in school productions.
- 2012 - 2015
*EU funded
Lemos & Crane
Award* Planned, wrote, co-ordinated and administered a multi-media Comenius project involving hundreds of students and staff across Europe. I arranged events and foreign travel plus writing a recipe book 'Food for Thought'.
- 2008 - 2015
*Shakespeare
School's Festival

Literacy Net Award* Wrote or adapted plays for school and public performances eg -Romeo and Juliet & A Mid-summer Night's Dream.
Wrote and directed multi media productions eg -Harry Potting and the Slugs of Doom, Chiller, like Thriller, only Cooler.
- 2010- 2011
Uniservity Award Created school website content for Brighton & Hove.
- 2011- 2012
